Mafi-Trench celebrates Atlas Copco Day

Santa Maria, California, February 27, 2009 – On Monday, February 23rd, Mafi-Trench, part of the Atlas Copco Group, celebrated Atlas Copco's 136th birthday. This has come to be known as "Atlas Copco Day" when every year employees and stakeholders gather and celebrate the birth of Atlas Copco's corporate brand.

Atlas Copco Day reinforces the company's corporate identity and core values of interaction, commitment, and innovation and the company's vision...First in mind - first in choice.

Mafi-Trench was purchased by Atlas Copco in 2007 and is part of the Atlas Copco Gas and Process division. Mafi-Trench employees celebrated Atlas Copco Day with a birthday cake and refreshments and a discussion about the strategy and things that unite the Group: values, history, culture, processes and the brand.

General Manager Jim Reilly told the employees, "We were fortunate to be purchased in 2007 by Atlas Copco. Atlas Copco strongly supports our brand and business just as we support Atlas Copco. In 2008 the Gas and Process division helped us win several major orders as well as invested nearly a million dollars in improvements to our factory in support of our customers. 2009 will be a tough year, but perhaps less tough due to the support we get from Atlas Copco's sales team. Mafi-Trench is looking forward to being part of Atlas Copco's 200 year birthday!"
